SELECTED. BOTH BANDS.

Ashley High School's Concert Band and Wind Ensemble submitted recordings and went through the festival's application process. Both bands were selected to perform at Carnegie Hall.

The comeback. Six years ago, Ashley Bands was down to about 52 students, rehearsing outside in masks. Mr. Parker said rebuilding would take seven years. This is the seventh season.

About 100 students. Years of work. One extraordinary stage.

The community campaign exists so that an earned invitation is never missed because of money. No Student Left Behind.

Carnegie Hall.

"No Student Left Behind."

An earned invitation. A community standing behind it.

THE STORY

Ashley High School's Concert Band and Wind Ensemble submitted recordings and were selected to perform on the Perelman Stage at Carnegie Hall on March 25, 2027, through the festival's application process.

COVID nearly ended this program. Six years ago it was down to about 52 students, rehearsing outside in masks. Class after class learned the program, stayed, and taught the next group. This is the seventh season of the rebuild, and both concert bands are going to New York.

Separately, the program was named to the inaugural class of the NCBA Program of Distinction. Two separate achievements. One program.

WHAT THIS MEANS

For most of these students, this will be their first time in New York City. For all of them, it will be a performance they remember for the rest of their lives. The community campaign exists so that no student has to miss it because of money.

Every student who earned this deserves to go.
