KAREN MATTHEWS

Conductor, Middle School Concert Band

Karen Matthews is a graduate of East Carolina University, where she received her Bachelor's degree in Music Education ('96) and her Master's degree in Music Performance and Education ('01). Mrs. Matthews has 27 years of experience teaching at the elementary, middle, and high school levels in North Carolina and Virginia. She currently serves as the band director at Dixon Middle School in Sneads Ferry, NC. During her time at Dixon Middle School, she has served as department chair, beginning teacher mentor, AVID site team member, and an ECU cooperating teacher.

In addition to her service, Mrs. Matthews has been recognized with individual accolades such as Teacher of the Year, a 2023 finalist for the North Carolina Symphony Teacher of the Year, and the 2024 Onslow County Encore/Elective Teacher of the Year. Additionally, her bands have consistently earned honors at various competitions and festivals, and she regularly has students represented in local, district, and state-level honor bands. Mrs. Matthews is also a professional development instructor for Onslow County and an active judge and clinician for events across Eastern North Carolina, including marching band competitions, honor bands, and the ECU Summer Band Camp. She is an active member of the National Association for Music Education, the North Carolina Music Educators Association, and the North Carolina Bandmasters Association, where she serves as the NCBA Eastern District Past President.

Mrs. Matthews resides in Sneads Ferry with her three wonderful children, Benjamin, Alice-Ann, and Lourie-Anna.

TYLER ARCARI

Conductor, Middle School Symphonic Band

Tyler Arcari (b. 1989) is a composer, arranger, author, and clinician whose music is played around the world. He received his B.A. and M.S. degrees in music education from Troy University where he studied with composer Ralph Ford and Euphonium under Dr. Mark J. Walker. As a teacher, Tyler has taught at both the middle and high school levels. Tyler's primary focus when writing has been for the young musician. He became passionate about and interested in the needs of developing musicians as a classroom teacher and finds writing for musicians at this level to be very rewarding.

Tyler's music can currently be found published through Excelcia Music Publishing, Wingert-Jones Publications, Kendor Music Publishing, and Carl Fischer Music. His original works have been featured across the globe, and appear on numerous state contest lists and events such as the Midwest Clinic International Band and Orchestra Conference. As an arranger and commissioned composer, Tyler has worked with many high school, university, and community groups as well as professionals such as Carl Hilding "Doc" Severinsen and vocalist Holly Shelton. As a Clinician, Tyler regularly appears as composer- in- residence as well as guest clinician for honor bands and festivals.

Currently, Tyler serves as the Director of Music Production and Editing at Excelcia Music Publishing LLC, Wingert-Jones Publications, Kendor Music Publishing, and RBC Publications. In his spare time, Tyler enjoys playing fantasy-world video games and building his own computers. He is an avid animal lover and lives in Lakeland with his wife Heather, their three rabbits named Marshmallow, Maximus, and Oatmeal, their peach cat named Otis, and dog named Hilda.

MATT HOWARD

Conductor, High School 9th & 10th Grade Band

Matt Howard is in his 13th year of teaching at J.H. Rose High School. Mr. Howard is a 2006 graduate of Pitt County Schools (Farmville Central HS) and completed his B.M. (Music Education - '10) as a Teaching Fellow at East Carolina University. He then went on to earn his M.M. (Performance, with concentrations in Wind Conducting and Tuba - '12) from ECU, where he studied tuba with Tom McCaslin, conducting with Dr. Scott Carter, and was a graduate teaching assistant with the ECU Marching Pirates under Dr. Bill Staub.

Mr. Howard is an active leader on the campus of J.H. Rose, serving on the Scheduling & Scholarship Committees and as a Beginning Teacher Mentor. He serves as the lead teacher for the PCS High School Band PLN and regularly hosts student teachers from ECU. He also serves as the Eastern District High School Auditions site host and is East Region Jazz MPA Chair. Mr. Howard has served as both the Chair and Auditions Chair for East Region Jazz and currently serves as the NCMEA Jazz Section Chair.

Mr. Howard served in the North Carolina National Guard as a member of the 440th Army Band and maintains an active performing schedule in the eastern part of the state. When he isn't doing band, Mr. Howard loves spending time with his wonderful and silly geese - his wife, Katie & daughter, Ellis. Mr. Howard is a fan of all things golf, Snarky Puppy, Arsenal FC, and his dog Bingo. He is also tolerated by his cat, Reginald.

DR. NIEVES VILLASEÑOR III

Conductor, Senior High School 11th & 12th Grade Band

Dr. Nieves Villaseñor III is the Director of Bands and Coordinator of Music Education at the University of the Incarnate Word in San Antonio, Texas. In this role, he directs the Marching Cardinals, Wind Ensemble, Chamber Winds, and leads the Cardinal Red Basketball Band. He also teaches courses in instrumental music education and conducting for music majors.

Originally from Jacksonville, North Carolina, he is a graduate of White Oak High School. His early collegiate leadership experience includes serving as a drum major with the East Carolina University Marching Pirates, after which he earned his Bachelor of Arts in Music from the University of North Carolina Wilmington.

Before UIW, he served as Assistant Director of Bands at James Madison University. There, his responsibilities included working with the Marching Royal Dukes, directing the JMU Pep Band, and conducting the Symphonic Band and Wind Symphony.

His academic training includes the Doctor of Musical Arts degree in Instrumental Conducting from the University of Florida, with a cognate in Nonprofit Organizations, and a Master of Music degree in Instrumental Conducting from Syracuse University. In recognition of excellence in undergraduate instruction, he received the University of Florida Graduate Teaching Award in 2022.

His work includes leadership in both university and community-based ensembles. He is the founder and artistic director of the San Antonio Community Wind Ensemble and serves annually on the instrumental music faculty of the North Carolina Governor's School East in Raleigh, North Carolina.
